Training Opportunity for Tribal Probation Officers

The American Probation & Parole Association, in partnership with the Center for Strength-Based Strategies and the Vera Institute of Justice is pleased to announce the availability of a training opportunity entitled Case Management Practices for Tribal Probation Personnel. This training program is funded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance as a way to provide continuing education and professional development to enhance tribal probation officers knowledge and skills.

Case Management Practices for Tribal Probation Personnel

June 17-19, 2014

Hilton Garden Inn, Ft. Lauderdale Airport-Cruise Port

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Blended Learning

This is a blended-learning event. Participants will be required to complete online lessons prior to the on-site skill-building training event.

Once on site, participants will be engaged in skill-building activities designed to provide practice and coaching on the training topics.

Family Support Approach for Community Supervision

Ryan Shanahan, Vera Institute of Justice, Family Justice Program

Motivational Interviewing

Todd Roberts, Center for Strength-Based Strategies

Strategies for Case Planning

Kimberly Cobb, American Probation & Parole Association

Class Size is Limited---ACT NOW! Training class size is limited to the FIRST 15 participants who register. Every participant who is accepted for this training will receive a* scholarship to help pay travel and lodging expenses.

To register for this event, please visit https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/GZVLX65 and submit your information. APPA will notify you via email if your registration is approved for this event and will send you a Scholarship Agreement form, so please do not begin making travel arrangements until you receive this confirmation.

For questions, please contact Lisa Ginter at:

☎PHONE (859) 244-8193 ✉EMAIL: lginter@csg.org 🖷FAX (859) 244-8001