

Nancy Halverson is a Corrections Unit Supervisor for an adult field service unit of Hennepin County Department of Community Corrections in Minneapolis, Minnesota. She supervises 14 probation officers assigned to caseloads of “person crimes.” Of these officers under her supervision, nine supervise exclusively misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor domestic violence caseloads, one is assigned to the Domestic Abuse Service Center, and two supervise felony caseloads on which approximately half of the offenders are domestic violence perpetrators. She has more than 20 years of experience as both a juvenile corrections officer and an adult probation officer. She has been a member of the Fourth Judicial District Family Violence Coordinating Council and is a current member of the Criminal Subcommittee of that Council. She is also a member of her jurisdiction’s Fatality Review Team for domestic violence homicides. In 2001 she was awarded the Gold WATCH (Women At The Court House – Court Watch) for being “instrumental in improving the services for and supervision of domestic abuse offenders in the Hennepin County Department of Corrections and courts.” She is a trainer at local, state and national events on the assessment and supervision of domestic abuse offenders. Ms. Halverson has a Bachelor of Arts Degree from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, and a Juris Doctor from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota.
