

Training Opportunity for Tribal Community Corrections Personnel

The American Probation & Parole Association is pleased to announce the availability of a training opportunity entitled Interviewing & Report Writing Skills for Tribal Community Corrections Personnel. This training program is funded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance as a way to provide continuing education and professional development to enhance tribal community corrections officers' knowledge and skills.

Interviewing & Report Writing Skills for Tribal Community Corrections Personnel

August 2-4, 2016

Hilton Garden Inn Ft. Lauderdale Airport Cruise Port

Ft. Lauderdale, FL

Blended Learning

This is a blended-learning event. Participants will be required to complete online lessons prior to the on-site skill-building training event.

Once on site, participants will be engaged in skill-building activities designed to provide practice and coaching on the training topics. Participants will be given a case to work from arrest to revocation/completion and conduct practice interviews with defendants/probationers, family members, victims, employers, neighbors, children, etc. and use the interview information to develop a variety of reports including pretrial reports, pre-sentence investigations, pre-sentence recommendations, case notes, and a variety of other supervision-related forms and reports. Participants will leave the training with templates of a variety of forms to use in their own jurisdictions.

Faculty:

Kimberly Cobb, Project Director, American Probation & Parole Association

Anne Seymour, National Crime Victim Advocate

John Klavins, Director, Ramsey County Community Corrections

Jason Anderson, Director, Itasca County Probation

To register for this training, please submit your information here:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/F9775L8>

10 scholarships are available to assist with travel & lodging costs

For questions, please contact Kim Cobb at:

PHONE (859) 244-8015

EMAIL: kcobb@csg.org

FAX (859) 244-8001