APPA AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY CRIME PREVENTION

The APPA Award for Excellence in Community Crime Prevention seeks to recognize community corrections agencies, or community crime prevention programs coordinating with a community corrections agency, that have integrated community crime prevention initiatives into the traditional roles of supervision, intervention and sanctioning of offenders.

JOE KEGANS AWARD FOR VICTIM SERVICES IN PROBATION AND PAROLE

This award honors an individual working in community corrections who has provided exemplary services to victims of crime. This distinguished award was established as a tribute to the late Judge Joe Kegans, a founding member of APPA's Victim Issues Committee, who devoted her career as a jurist to bettering the lives of all with whom she came into contact. Nominees for this award may be living or deceased, and preference will be given to community corrections professions or volunteers who have personally experienced criminal victimization and have used that experience to help others.

APPA COMMUNITY AWARENESS THROUGH MEDIA AWARD

This award recognizes a media broadcast, publication or film capable of reaching a national audience that broadens the public's awareness and understanding of issues in the American criminal justice system in an accurate, fair and balanced manner, through sharing the vision of APPA. Such media coverage has the potential to improve community awareness and understanding of the community corrections profession.

SAM HOUSTON STATE UNIVERSITY AWARD

The Sam Houston State University Award honors a practitioner who has published an article concerning probation, parole or community corrections that provides new information and insight into the operation, effectiveness or future of the community corrections profession. For such recognition, an article must have been published in a national or regional journal.
