2018 APPA AWARDS

recognizing accomplishments

APPA presents several prestigious awards that recognize your most distinguished professional achievements and allows you to share best practice ideas with your peers. Award nominations are accepted twice each year and are presented at the annual and winter training institutes. Awards will be presented at the 43rd Annual Training Institute in Philadelphia July 29-August 1, 2018 for Member of the Year, Scotia Knouff Line Officer of the Year, and Walter Dunbar Memorial.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD

Membership – Indicate length of time nominee has been a member of APPA (must be at least one year).

Written Justification – Description of justification and/or contributions the nominee has made that supports the recommended award.

1. Testimonial – One testimonial from supporters from the profession, treatment services, law enforcement, victims, clients or the community, as appropriate for each award.

SCOTIA KNOUFF LINE OFFICER OF THE YEAR AWARD

SCOTIA KNOUFF LINE OFFICER OF THE YEAR

This award is the most competitive and perhaps the most prestigious practitioner award offered by APPA. This award honors a probation, parole or community corrections officer who has performed assigned duties in an outstanding manner and/or made significant contributions to the probation, parole or community corrections profession at the local, regional or national level.

WALTER DUNBAR MEMORIAL

This award recognizes significant contributions by a practicing professional or a retired practitioner in the field of probation and/or parole, and is presented in honor of one of APPA's most distinguished colleagues, the late Walter Dunbar. Recipient must have a national presence and influence and have provided a significant contribution to APPA.

MEMBER OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes the work and energy of a worthy APPA member who has been a member of the association for at least one year. This award is presented to an individual member who has provided significant contributions to the organization through promotion of its vision and mission.
