APPA PRESIDENT'S AWARD

The APPA President's Award recognizes exemplary community corrections programs or projects which serve to advance the knowledge, effectiveness and the integrity of the criminal justice system. APPA seeks to recognize visionary organizations that have exemplified the management and innovations necessary to lead community corrections into the next decade. The APPA President's Award will be given to the community corrections program which meets a combination of the following criteria:

- The program either changes or contributes to the broad field of community corrections and helps to move the field forward.
- There is a clear correlation between the goals of the program and their effect (impact).
- The program makes a difference that is supported by impact data.
- The elements of the program which make a difference and can be replicated by others.
- There is clear evidence of the supportive nature of its environment.
- The program will be qualitatively evaluated on the following characteristics: program implementation process; client assessment practices; program characteristics which match the client's needs; therapeutic integrity; relapse prevention techniques; and
- staff characteristics and evaluation.

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE BY MAY 19, 2017

WALTER DUNBAR MEMORIAL AWARD

This is the oldest APPA practitioner award. This award recognizes significant contributions by a practicing professional or a retired practitioner in the field of probation and/or parole, and is presented in honor of one of APPA's most distinguished colleagues, the late Walter Dunbar. Recipient must have a national presence and influence and have provided a significant contribution to APPA.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI AWARD

The University of Cincinnati Award is a non-practitioner award, presented to an individual who has made significant contributions to the field of probation, parole or criminal justice technology. Recipients typically are individuals from an academic research or government agency not engaged in providing probation and parole services.

SCOTIA KNOUFF LINE OFFICER OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Scotia Knouff Line Officer of the Year Award is the most competitive and perhaps the most prestigious practitioner award offered by APPA. This award honors a probation, parole or community corrections officer who has performed assigned duties in an outstanding manner and/or made significant contributions to the probation, parole or community corrections profession at the local, regional or national level.

APPA MEMBER OF THE YEAR

The Member of the Year Award recognizes the work and energy of a worthy APPA member who has been a member of the association for at least one year. This award is presented to an individual member who has provided significant contributions to the organization through promotion of the vision and mission of APPA.

NOMINATIONS ARE DUE BY MAY 19, 2017
