

APPA publishes a professional journal, Perspectives, which contains articles on the latest field research, evaluations of innovative programs and supervision strategies. Articles in Perspectives are written by some of the leading academicians as well as nationally recognized professionals in the field of criminal justice. All articles are reviewed and recommended by a five member editorial committee.

Past articles and back issues are available. Copies of back issues are not guaranteed. For information regarding the Perspectives Monograph Series, see page 7.

Subscriptions to Perspectives are only available through APPA Membership or through a library subscription.
