

CALL FOR ARTICLES

Perspectives Journal Special Edition on Impaired Driving

Share Your Expertise
Advance the Field
Improve Outcomes

INVITATION TO SUBMIT

American Probation and Parole Association (APPA) invites practitioners, researchers, treatment professionals, court personnel, supervision agencies, policymakers, and academics to submit articles for a special edition of Perspectives dedicated to impaired driving and criminal justice responses.

TOPICS OF INTEREST

- Community supervision practices for impaired driving populations
- Judicial interventions and specialty court approaches
- Treatment, recovery, and behavioral health strategies
- Evidence-based practices and risk reduction approaches
- Policy development and implementation
- Program innovation and quality improvement initiatives
- Cross-system collaboration and emerging practices

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- APA 7th Edition
- Microsoft Word format
- 12-point Times New Roman
- Single-spaced
- 100-word author bio
- Tables/charts/figures submitted separately
- Abstract not required

ARTICLE CATEGORIES

- Research Articles
- Literature and Review Articles
- Program, Practice, or Policy Articles

PEER REVIEW

All submissions undergo editorial and peer review to assess quality, relevance, and fit for publication. Submission does not guarantee publication.

Submission Deadline

September 30, 2026

Questions / Submit Articles

Judge Kate Huffman – ohiojolhuffman@gmail.com
Gwyn Kaitis – gkaitis@csg.org