APPA LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE MENTORSHIP APPLICATION

Mentors for the Leadership Institute of the American Probation and Parole Association (APPA) are crucial to create a valuable and transformative experience for participants. Each mentor will have the unique opportunity to build a relationship with an emerging leader over a 12-month journey of self-discovery and organizational change. In APPA's Leadership Institute, talented individuals in supervisor/manager roles in community supervision (pretrial, probation, and parole) will be paired with a mentor experienced in upper management to develop the knowledge and competencies required of effective leaders. The program is designed to meet the needs of professionals from diverse backgrounds and cultures. The multi-disciplinary curriculum is a perfect blend of on-site and distance learning. This robust mentorship opportunity addresses current issues that plague community corrections as well as addressing competencies that are critical to successful development of leaders.

COMMITMENTS: APPA Leadership Institute Mentors are professionals who have been in a position of upper-leadership, currently or in the past, and are willing to:

- Commit their time and passion to being an APPA Mentor.
- Introduce the participant to a network of national community corrections leaders.
- Able to foster a relationship with your mentee(s) that consists of respect, communication, and transparency.
- Encourage active participation in APPA, NAPE, or other professional organizations.
- Provide project and assignment feedback.
- Assume all costs for participation as an APPA Mentor (travel, lodging, registration, etc.).
- Initiate contact with the assigned participant by email, phone, web, or person-to-person at least 4-6 hours per month for a 12-month period.
- If possible, meet face-to-face with the participant during an APPA Training Institute which co-occur with the Leadership Institute. Please review the class schedule below.
