

AMERICAN PROBATION AND PAROLE ASSOCIATION

2024 APPA AWARDS

Honoring our exceptional peers in the field of community corrections

2024 Winter Training Institute - Seattle

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Call for Nominations

The dedication and impact of community corrections professionals deserves recognition. To honor outstanding individuals in our field, APPA presents several prestigious awards each year. The award that will be presented at APPA's Winter Training Institute in February 2024 is:

- Joe Keagans Award for Victim Services in Probation and Parole

Nominations for this award is due by November 3, 2023, and must be submitted online via the link below. No other submission methods are accepted.

JOE KEAGANS AWARD FOR VICTIM SERVICES IN PROBATION AND PAROLE

This award honors an individual working in community corrections who has provided exemplary services to victims of crime. This distinguished award was established as a tribute to the late Judge Joe Kegans, a founding member of APPA's Victim Issues Committee, who devoted her career as a jurist to bettering the lives of all with whom she came into contact. Nominees for this award may be living or deceased, and preference will be given to community corrections professions or volunteers who have personally experienced criminal victimization and have used that experience to help others.

NOMINATION CRITERIA

1. Written Justification – Description of justification and/or contributions the nominee has made that support the award, including a curriculum vitae or resume.
2. Testimonial – One testimonial from supporters from the profession, treatment services, law enforcement, victims, clients or the community, as appropriate for each award. the same profession, treatment services, law enforcement, victims, clients or a member of the community as appropriate.

Deadline for nominations is:
November 3, 2023

[Make Your
Submission Here!](#)

