

Shannon & BODHI

Sergeant & Community Outreach Douglasville Police Department

Shannon Dean is a Sergeant with the Douglasville Police Department, where she has proudly served for nearly 30 years. Law enforcement has always been her calling, and throughout her career, she has worked in many areas of the department, currently serving as Community Outreach Supervisor and Senior Instructor. Shannon has earned recognition from her city, department, and service organizations, but the greatest reward has been hearing firsthand how she has positively impacted lives.

Beyond her career, Shannon treasures her family, including her husband, John, her two sons, Erik and Patrick, and her growing crew of grandchildren. She is also a proud dog mom to Bear and Bodhi, her Mastiffs. Bodhi, originally trained as her service dog, quickly revealed his own calling as a peer support and crisis response partner, especially with children and individuals in need. Together, Shannon and Bodhi continue a shared mission of compassion, connection, and service.
